

Schedule of Events for Craig George
Arctic Visiting Speaker
Sitka WhaleFest 2013

Tuesday, October 29

- Arrives late in evening in Sitka

Wednesday, October 30

- Prepares for school programs and Friday talk with Don Sineti

Thursday, October 31

Morning & Afternoon:

- Participate in “Scientist in the Schools” Program at Mount Edgecumbe High School: Classroom discussion and activities related to culture and whaling in the Arctic with Don Sineti, and dissection of a Bowhead eyeball.

Evening:

- Sitka Film Festival

Friday, November 1

Morning:

- Attend brunch with speakers and Sitka Sound Science Center Board of Directors

Afternoon:

- Symposium (Craig will participate in group discussions each afternoon with students taking the science symposium for college credit)
- Craig will be working with sea chantey and Yankee whaling expert Don Sineti of Mystic Seaport. Together, they will present “Cultural Exchange of Whaling Traditions”.

Evening:

- Attend reception for participants at the Sitka Sound Science Center
- Perform at the Sitka Maritime Grind

Saturday, November 2

- Craig will present a talk entitled “Stay at Home Whales: Bowheads and Belugas”
- Sitka WhaleFest banquet

Sunday, November 3

- Morning Wildlife Cruise with students
- Afternoon Symposium

Monday, November 4

- Depart Sitka for Barrow