

ARCTIC FUTURES 2050

4-6 September 2019 | Washington, D.C.

393 Participants

- Scientists
- Indigenous participants
- Policy makers
- Policy influencers
- Others

Conference structure: 3 days, 14 panel sessions, 4 poster sessions, 8 plenary talks, 1 tabletop demonstration

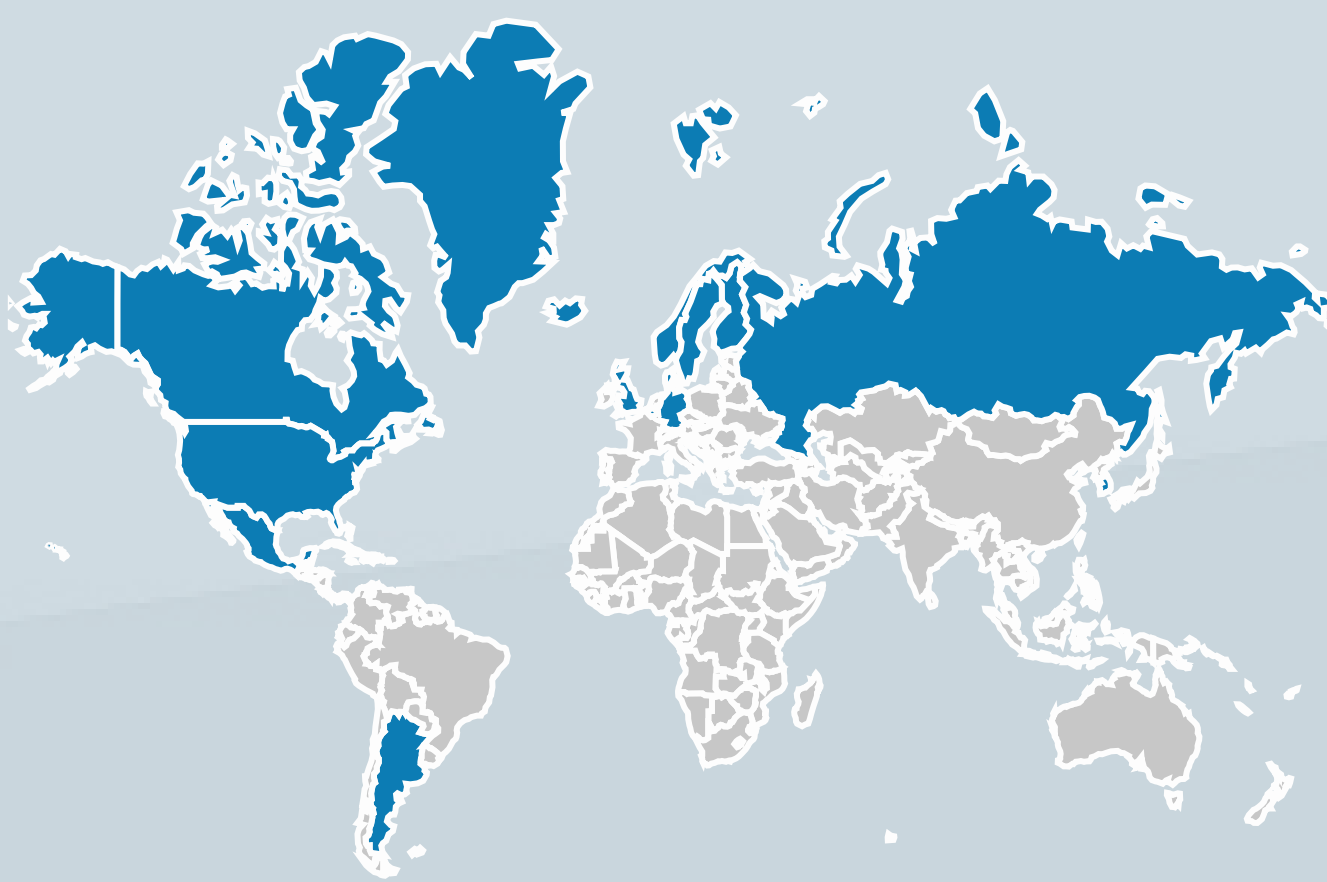

Live-streamed
Over 1,400 online views

181 Posters with over 400 authors

15 Countries represented, including all 8 Arctic nations

Over 61,000 people reached on Twitter (#AF2050)

54 Travel award recipients
(Indigenous participants & early career researchers)

347 Questions asked during plenary sessions

89% of survey respondents strongly agreed or agreed that the conference provided new networking opportunities

19 Sponsor & Partner Organizations

"It is imperative that we quickly evolve our decision-making practices to include all of the knowledge systems...to guide our collective future."

-Ayyu Qassataq, First Alaskans Institute

